

Project/Program Management Training Workshop
Day 2 Q&A
May 23-25, 2022

May 24, 2022: Day 2: During the Project

Questions Related to Session 8: Financial Management/Grant Management and Reporting to Funder

1. (Mesfin Retta; mesfin.kebede@vita.ie) Most of the donors are very sensitive on receiving reports. But they are not good in providing feedback on the reports. Feedback is important for improvements. What about USAID?
  - a. live answered
2. (ERMIAS GUTA; ermias.guta@vita.ie) Does the community have a stake in grant management?
  - a. live answered
3. (Thandie Hamaimbo; thandiehamaimbo@gmail.com) Is there a system to track the sustainability and success of funded projects among in country beneficiaries. Does the funder reach out to the beneficiaries often or on all projects
  - a. live answered
4. (Mesfin Retta; mesfin.kebede@vita.ie) China has become main supplier of various types of machines in most of developing countries (mainly African). I heard that USAID is very strict on rules of origin in the procurement of equipment for project purpose. What is your view on this challenge?
  - a. live answered
5. (Elfatih M. Abdel-Rahman; eabdel-rahman@icipe.org) Following up on China being is a manufacturer of most of the project instruments in Africa. For instance, in Kenya, but the suppliers are Kenya and we use these suppliers
  - a. live answered
6. (Bénéwendé Aristide KABORE; benarist.vet@gmail.com) What about the capitalization of projects for the identification of lessons learned. Is it done systematically?
  - a. 0
7. (Tsehayu Kassie Yigzaw; tsehayukassie@gmail.com) In elation with the previous question what are restriction in relation to purchasing of Fuels and oils for vehicles and machines?
  - a. 0
8. How can one account for expenditure that doesn't come with receipts? e.g cost of transport via public means in most of the African countries.

This course was made possible by the support of the American People through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) as part of Feed the Future Innovation Lab for Current and Emerging Threats to Crops under USAID award number 7200AA21LE00005. The contents of this course are the sole responsibility of Michigan State University and do not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government.